Asset Protection Strategies for Your Primary Home

Asset Protection is utilized by individuals and businesses to legally and ethically protect assets from the future/potential threat of creditors. The best time to protect assets is before a legal controversy arises. Below are the most common strategies to protect your primary home:

Maximize the Homestead Exemption for a Primary Residence is one of the best strategies to utilize. For example, if your home is worth $200,000.00 and you have a $75,000.00 mortgage, then you may pay the entire Mortgage Balance off so that the Homestead Exemption (and creditor protection) is maximized from $125,000.00 to the full $200,000.00 (value of the property). Each state has different homestead laws.
