What is The Best Entity For Business Owners and Professionals?

Before the advent of the LLC; the corporation was the only practical entity for the business owner. The choice was then between the S corporation and the C corporation. Now the LLC is the third option. Most business owners, in the past, elected the S corporation over the C corporation because the S corporation is taxed as a proprietorship or partnership so the profits or losses would flow directly to its stockholders. Larger corporations normally select the C corporation because of its number and diversity of stockholders. Now, the LLC can afford the same tax advantages as the S corporation or C corporation and also provide you with Asset Protection.
