How Can You Receive a Fixed Income, Acquire Tax Advantages, and Donate to Charity?

The Charitable Remainder Trust (CRT) will achieve all three of these goals. A CRT is an irrevocable trust that provides for specific distribution, at least annually, to one or more non-charitable income recipients for a specified period of time with the remainder interest paid to at least one charity.

The grantor transfers assets into the trust in which a specified amount is paid to the beneficiary throughout his or her lifetime. As the lifetime income beneficiary, the trust will pay you an annual income. There is also the potential for growth of that income over time. A CRT may be a good fit for you if you are looking for a fixed income for retirement and if you have appreciated assets
