ASSET PROTECTION ATTORNEYS

How can you use Life Insurance and Annuities as a Will Substitute?

In some states, such as Florida, it is desirable to pass assets outside of the surrogate's court. There are many tools that you can use to achieve this objective. One such tool is life insurance and annuities.

Life Insurance is the equitable transfer of the risk of a loss, from one entity to another, in exchange for payment. Life insurance insures the risk of a loss of life and its cash value is exempt from creditor judgment.

An annuity is a contract between you and an insurance company that is designed to meet retirement and other long-range goals. Annuities typically allow for tax-deferred growth of earning and may include death benefits; however early withdrawal of an Annuity may trigger a penalty.
