What is a Digital Estate Plan and Why is it Important?

In this day and age, Digital Estate Planning is crucial. Digital Estate Planning is the process of inventorying and providing your estate access to your online accounts at your death. Everyone has at least one online account, whether its online banking, Bill Pay, etc. If you pass away without giving someone else those log-in/account details, your estate will have a tough time accessing those accounts due to stringent online privacy policies.
