ASSET PROTECTION ATTORNEYS

In your view, what are the most common mistakes clients make when confronted with a lawsuit?

That's a great question. We can offer a number of observations. First is the tendency to panic over a significant lawsuit. We well-understand our clients' fears, nevertheless most lawsuits do end up without major loss to the client. Again, much of our role is to play psychologist and calm our clients' worries. Of course, we can more effectively do this only if we had protected his or her assets.
